

Royal College of Surgeons International Surgical Training Programme Clinical Fellowship Position Available

Application deadline 11 April

The Newcastle Upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust is delighted to be able to offer the opportunity for a highly motivated, ambitious individual to join their well integrated Paediatric Surgery team based at the Great North Children's Hospital. The successful candidate will support with the provision of specialist paediatric surgical services to the Northern Region, which will include three elective operating lists and two outpatient sessions per week, as well as ward assessment and management of elective and emergency admissions.

This is a 12 month post, starting September 2021.

All applicants must meet the ISTP eligibility requirements in order to be considered for this role.

Click here to apply by the deadline of 11 April 2021.

Learning Outcomes

- To gain experience in wide variety of general and neonatal surgical conditions including laparoscopic surgery.
- To be able to operate at level 4 in the majority of neonatal index surgical conditions, e.g. OA/TOF surgery, abdominal wall defect, CDH, congenital ano-rectal anomalies.
- The candidate will be given the chance to choose a subspecialty interest during their time e.g. Surgical Oncology, ano-rectal surgery, upper GI surgery.
- To complete a relevant clinical research project with a view to presentation and publication.”